ACCJ responds to Earthquake and Tsunami in Japan

March 14, 2011 – Our hearts go out to all those affected by the tragedy in Japan. It is clear that the impact will be significant and far-reaching.

The American Chamber of Commerce in Japan (ACCJ) is working closely with our member companies and the U.S. and Japanese governments to assess the situation and respond accordingly. We will provide information as soon as we receive it from official channels.

ACCJ members have lived, worked and thrived in Japan for over six decades. Most call Japan "Home."

We stand ready to work hand in hand with the people of Japan, governments and industry to overcome these tragic events.

For the most up to date information, go to the U.S. Embassy in Tokyo website: <http://japan.usembassy.gov/>

ACCJ related updates will be posted on the Chamber's Facebook page: <http://go.accj.or.jp/facebook>

About ACCJ

The American Chamber of Commerce in Japan (ACCJ) was established in 1948 by representatives of 40 American companies and has grown into one of the most influential business organizations in Japan. Consisting mainly of executives from American companies, currently the ACCJ has members representing 1,000 companies with offices in Tokyo, Nagoya, and Osaka. Working closely with the governments of the United States and Japan, business organizations, and others, the ACCJ promotes activities that help achieve its mission of further developing commerce between the United States and Japan, promoting the interests of U.S. companies and members, and improving the international business environment in Japan. Over 60 committees representing various industries play the ACCJ's central role in making policy recommendations through advocacy tools such as the Business White Paper and holding over 500 events and seminars annually on public policy and economic trends. The ACCJ is also committed to promoting charitable events and other CSR activities.
