

Tomoshige Kabetani

Background

- Born in Nara Prefecture
- 2012: Bachelor's Degree in Dentistry and Doctor of Dental Surgery (DDS)
- 2012: An accident in Cambodia — where he was working as a medical volunteer providing dental treatment to refugees — resulted in a spinal cord injury.
- 2018: Completed his doctoral degree (PhD) at Osaka University, Graduate School of Dentistry
- January 2019: Joined AIG Japan Holdings KK

Wheelchair Rugby Highlights

- Wheelchair Rugby Team, Tokyo Suns
- A reserve member of the Japan National team for the Tokyo Paralympics
- Best Player Award, 20th Japan Championship in 2018

Takayuki Kabetani

Background

- Born in Kumamoto Prefecture
- March, 2010: Graduated from National Institute of Technology, Ariake College
- April 2012 – August 2018: IBM Japan, Ltd.
- September 2018 – Present: AIG Japan Holdings KK

Wheelchair Rugby Highlights

- Wheelchair Rugby Team, AXE
- A reserve member of the Japan National team for the Tokyo Paralympics
- 2018: Best Player Award, 20th Japan Championship
- May 2019: 3rd place, Four Nations Wheelchair Rugby Invitation
- May 2019: 2nd place, Asia Oceania Championship
- October 2019: 3rd place, Wheelchair Rugby World Challenge