

Kyoko Yamamoto

Head of Human Resources

Senior Vice President, NTT Communications Corporation

Kyoko began her career at NTT in 1992, working in the call center as an operator. Since then, she has advanced her career at the company through various roles, including administrative representative in Hong Kong, manager of human resources, and sales director of a local branch in Japan.

Since July 2017, as the head of HR, she has launched a company-wide talent management platform named “ODYSSEY” to promote employees’ career development, introduced job grading system, and driven the workstyle transformation.

Kyoko holds a Bachelor of Political Science from Waseda University in Japan and a Master of Science in Leadership and Strategy in the London Business School Sloan Fellowship Program.

Kyoko is Managing Director of the company owned rugby team “ShiningArcs,” one of the popular teams joining the Japan Rugby Top League.