

Mr. Nobuyuki Hirano

Chairman, Japan-U.S. Business Council

President & Group CEO, Mitsubishi UFJ Financial Group, Inc.

Chairman, The Bank of Tokyo-Mitsubishi UFJ, Ltd.

Mr. Hirano joined The Mitsubishi Bank, Ltd. in 1974. After working at domestic branch banking offices, he developed his career in Europe and New York, where he held a variety of positions within corporate banking and global strategy planning. Following his return to Japan, he held a number of high-ranking positions in divisions related to corporate banking and corporate planning. In conjunction with the establishment of the Bank in January 2006, Mr. Hirano was appointed as a managing director responsible for corporate function. In October 2008, he was assigned the concurrent position of chief credit officer, adding to his existing responsibilities. In March 2009, Mr. Hirano also became a director at Morgan Stanley, a firm with which MUFG had formed a strategic capital alliance. In June 2009, he became a deputy president of the Bank, and also assumed a position as a managing officer of MUFG in charge of facilitating the strategic alliance with Morgan Stanley. In April 2012, Mr. Hirano was appointed president of the Bank, and a year later, in April 2013, began concurrently serving as president and CEO of MUFG. In June 2015, he was appointed director, representative corporate executive officer and president & group CEO of MUFG. In April 2016, he became chairman of the Bank.

Mr. Hirano was appointed as a Chairman of JUBC in November 2017.
